

TRANSPED LIMITED

Transped Limited is a subsidiary company of the Port of Blyth and was established in 1997 to create added services and marketing for the Port.

Based in the Port of Blyth, Transped have a vast experience of unitised and project work in particular with dedicated agents worldwide and a multi-lingual staff to ensure the highest level of service delivery. Due to business development, the following vacancy has arisen:

Warehouse & Timber Packaging Manufacturing Apprentice

Transped is looking for 2 Apprentices to train in Warehouse and Timber Packaging manufacturing. The ideal candidate must be willing and able to work flexible shift patterns during busy periods and be numerate & literate.

Key skills and duties in which you will be trained (minimum)

Performing all warehouse duties and Timber packaging Manufacturing effectively as follows

- Design and manufacture packaging cases
- Record dispatch notes, receipts and stock information
- Licence to drive Forklift trucks
- Load/unload vehicles
- Operate timber cutting machinery and bench tools
- Awareness of health & safety legislation

With the Apprenticeship in Warehouse and Timber Packaging manufacturing, you will be undertaking a formal qualification. Your Tutor / Assessor will take you through your training and once your course is completed, you will have gained as a minimum, NVQ Level 2.

Applications in writing to:

Stuart Balmer-Howieson (HR & Safety Manager)
Port of Blyth
South Harbour
Blyth
NE24 3PB

Email: stuart.balmer-howieson@portofblyth.co.uk

Closing date: 11th August 2017